PACIM Scholarships and Awards for 2015

Thanks to generous bequests from the estate of Angelina Guminga and The Polanie Organization, as well as members of the Polish American Cultural Institute of Minnesota, PACIM is able to continue a tradition of supporting academic scholarship. We wish continued success to all in their academic pursuits and invite applicants to become members in PACIM. 2015 awards go to:

Monika Bueltel, an environmental engineering student at the University of Notre Dame.

Michael Musielewicz, doctoral student at the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin in Poland studying philosophy with interests in ethics, political philosophy, and philosophy of science.

2015 PACIM, Polish American Cultural Institute of Minnesota Rog Endowment Awards support:

The Polish Arts and Cultural Student Association, PACSA, is a brand-new student group at the University of Minnesota. Founded in the spring of 2015, PACSA is looking forward to its inaugural season of bringing Polish culture to the U of M community. As the first and only registered student organization focusing on Poland, its history, arts, language, and traditions, we aim to provide a place for students of Polish descent or extraction a place to celebrate their heritage, and those of other backgrounds an opportunity to become educated about Polish contributions to the world.

Polish Educational Solutions of Minnesota, POLESOM, exists to provide and inspire creative and outstanding educational activities that resonate with the Polish-American population. We focus on teaching Polish to children by weaving Polish culture and tradition into our monthly kids clubs, classes, camps and musical performance groups. We promote Polish language, art, culture, and heritage by creating engaging events around all things Polish.

The value volunteers provide to the events cannot be overstated. Without your help at an event, it cannot succeed. We continue to look forward for your help. There is a lot of camaraderie at the booths and events.

We want to make it an enjoyable and enriching experience for all volunteers.

Volunteer opportunities: October – Polish Soup Festival, December – Wigilia, year round - PACIM Library.

For more information on current opportunities, contact PACIM at 612-378-9291.
